Eligibility Exemption Request (EER)

* indicates a required field

Instructions to Prospective Applicants

An Eligibility Exemption Request (EER) may be submitted to obtain an exemption if:

- The applicant's PhD was awarded prior to 1 January 2016 and there are exceptional extenuating circumstances;
- For clarification where the applicant holds an appointment or series of appointments at the University of Melbourne totaling one year or more;
- The applicant has another candidate eligibility issue due to exceptional circumstances.

If submitting an EER, applicants must make a compelling argument as to why the exemption request should be approved.

- Submission of an EER does not guarantee an exemption.
- RIC will not support EERs for applicants who have undertaken employment or decided to follow a different career path prior to 1 January 2018 and/or if the applicant was awarded their PhD ten (10) or more years ago.
- RIC will not support EERs for applicants who will not be able to provide PhD evidence by the application closing date.
