PhD Project Proposal

* indicates a required field

In this section, you are required to provide an overview of the project proposal, including its rationale and potential impact, as well as a timeline outlining when and where the different parts of the research will take place at each institution. The project must identify a Home Institution where the majority of the research is undertaken during the PhD.

PI's should also consider the funding allowances included for successful proposals, as well as the requirements of the PhD program when considering the structure of the projects.

The structure of the PhD is flexible according to project needs, but each candidate must:

- Commence at U of T in Fall (September) 2025 / Winter (January) 2026 to complete mandatory coursework and comprehensive exam requirements;
- Spend at least 12 months at U of T of which 6 months must be dedicated only to research;
- Spend at least 12 months at Melbourne; AND
- Spend a maximum of 24 months at the Host/Collaborator institution.

The Home Institution is defined as the institution where the majority of research is undertaken during the PhD.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

Adherence to respective equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI) policies are a core feature of this program, to ensure that all participants can do their best work, thrive and succeed. This application must demonstrate a commitment to EDI by highlighting meaningful steps taken by the lead applicants to implement equitable practices for team recruitment and to foster an environment that values, supports and respects a diverse range of views, knowledge and experiences. Applicants should consider EDI as it applies to gender diversity, race/ethnicity, indigeneity, disability, sexual orientation, career stages and sectors. The meaningful integration of all members in the proposed project team is required, with concrete measures put in place to support their integration and development, where appropriate.
