Part A - Administrative Summary

* indicates a required field

Instructions to Applicants

In the situation of co-authored research where multiple researchers are applying for the Medal on the basis of the same research publication(s), the researchers may jointly apply. In the application form, each applicant must explicitly detail their individual contribution to the research and the publication(s) and each provide their academic curriculum vitae (CV).

If awarded the Medal, the award and prize will be shared equally across the nominated co-authors.

Honorary staff whose primary academic affiliation is the University of Melbourne are eligible to apply if they satisfy all other Woodward Medal criteria and their nomination application relates to research work completed in the timeframe set out in the guidelines. In the scenario of a dual nomination application for co-authored work/s, the co-author may have an honorary appointment to the University.

Please note: A person may not apply for both a Woodward Medal and a Marles Medal in the same year.

Checklist:

- On the scheme webpage, read the guidelines and check eligibility criteria. Address any queries to res-devschemes@unimelb.edu.au.
- The applicant(s) must complete the application form and provide all supporting documentation, including fully signed internal and external supporting statements..
- All fields must be completed or marked 'not applicable' to be eligible for review.
- Themis Submissions are not required for this scheme.
