Travel grant recipients must have approval from the Faculty Research Office prior to registering interest in the program.

Travel award terms and conditions

Requests for travel funding will be assessed by RIC, Chancellery (Research and Enterprise) and, where appropriate, participating Faculty Research Offices. A total of $2,500 may be requested from Chancellery, to be matched in at least a 1:1 ratio with funds provided by the Academic Division. Academic staff will be expected to submit an international grant application valued at $100,000 AUD or higher within one year of the travel grant award date. If evidence of an external application is not provided, then the funds must be returned.

Professional staff must present a case on how the travel grant will help support international grant activities at the University, and how the information will be shared with colleagues. Additional terms and conditions are included in the scheme guidelines. I have attached the required Departmental approval for travel support as part of this application

Please confirm you understand the above conditions: *

- I understand
- Not applicable - I am not requesting travel funding through iGAP
